HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

Division 3 will meet next Wednesday night.

The auxiliaries of Omaha are arranging for the proper celebration of St. Patrick's day.

The County Board met last night at Bertrand Hall and discussed plans for St. Patrick's day.

Robert Hennessy, son of County President Hennessy and member of Division 4, is back at work again.

Oregon Hibernians will send Rev. Father O'Hara as one of their delegates to the Irish race convention.

Division 3's Entertainment Committee had a "jazz" band for a feature following Friday night's meeting.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of South Omaha continues meetings at the homes of members, which prove very enjoyable.

Division 3 of Omaha held a special meeting Monday night to receive applications for the initiation that takes place tomorrow.

Division 3 of Indianapolis has launched a membership campaign, headed by D. J. Sullivan, that will close with a big initiation on March 4.

At the joint meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary and Hibernians of Portland, Ore., a generous sum was donated to the Nuns of the Battlefield fund.

A feature of the St. Patrick's day parade at Indianapolis will be a guard of honor composed of Hibernians who have served in the army and navy.

At the installation and banquet of Ladies' Auxiliary 5 of Indianapolis lovely gifts were presented to each of the division, county, State and national officers.

The St. Patrick's day parade in New York promises to be the greatest in history, all factions being united, and have agreed on Supreme Court Justice Goff as Marshal.

T. J. Langan, L. D. Meany and James J. McTighe, of Division 4, drafted memorial resolutions on the death of Mrs. S. J. McElliot, wife of Stephen J. McElliot, of that division.

About 200 enjoyed the party given in St. Patrick's Hall by the Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Joseph, Mo., and the members have been the recipients of many compliments upon its success.

Division 3 meets next Friday night, and as the Entertainment Committee has arranged a special treat for that night every member should come and enjoy what will be prepared for them.

Indianapolis Hibernians will have a two days' celebration in honor of St. Patrick. The religious celebration will take place on Sunday, March 16, and the civic festivities on the Monday following.

There is much activity in West End Hibernian circles, due to the live wire entertainment of Division 3. A new order has been introduced at meetings that makes the time pass pleasantly and will bring out an increased attendance.

The United Irish-American Societies of New York are congratulating the two County Boards of the Ancient Order of Hibernians on their agreement to come together with all the other Irish societies for a united St. Patrick's day parade.

Friends of Division 3 should fill the Norman Theater to overflowing on the night of February 21. Manager Wessels will present a very interesting set of films, and Wells and Green, just back from the war, will be a drawing attraction.

WEST MAIN STREET GARAGE.

Automobile owners who are in need of motor repair work should not fail to call City 5980, headquarters of the West Main street garage. This repair shop is splendidly equipped for business and its employees are skilled electricians and mechanics, familiar with all sorts of starting devices and generators.

Most of them have had years of factory experience with Buick, Dodge and Packard cars, while the members of the firm, Messrs. R. M. Campbell and D. I. Jacob, have been connected with some of the leading motor establishments here for the past seven years and are skilled in every branch of the business. If in need of first class work on your cars by first class men call up the garage at 120 West Main street and your order will be promptly and satisfactorily attended to.

RECENT DEATHS.

By the death of John Teeken, beloved husband of Anna Teeken, 1030 East Main street, St. John's parish loses another of its respected members. His funeral was held Monday morning, when friends and neighbors attended in large numbers.

Death on Friday of last week took from St. Martin's church two highly esteemed members—William Koehler, of 718 South Shelby street, and Casper Koelz, of 827 South Shelby. Funeral services were held Monday morning, attended by many mourning relatives and acquaintances.

Sympathy of their many friends goes out to Dr. Leo and Elsie Kearns, 2226 Napoleon boulevard, from whom the Angel of Death took their three-year-old son Joseph, leaving a happy home in deepest gloom. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at St. Francis of Assisi church.

Saturday morning the funeral of Mrs. Bridget Ford took place from St. Louis Bertrand's church, many friends attending the solemn obsequies. Mrs. Ford was the widow of the late John Ford and the mother of Mrs. Edward N. Kippes, 1621 West Kentucky street, with whom she made her home.

Many friends throughout the city were deeply grieved to learn of the death of Miss Mollie Tyrrell, which occurred early Sunday morning at the Sacred Heart Home on College street. Miss Tyrrell had a wide acquaintance in Catholic circles and her many good qualities won for her the highest respect. Her funeral took place Monday afternoon.

Monday night Catherine Graves, beloved wife of James Graves, 1021 South Eighteenth street, was called into eternal rest, leaving a wide circle of friends who mourn her death. Mrs. Graves was fifty-seven years old and a member of St. Peter's church, from where the funeral was held Wednesday morning.

The death of Mrs. Bridget Quinn, widow of James Quinn and for many years a resident of the West End, occurred Tuesday morning at her residence, 333 North Twenty-seventh street. Of a kindly disposition and good-hearted, her death is mourned in the neighborhood where she lived. Her funeral was held Thursday morning from St. Cecilia's church.

Mrs. Nannie Price, aged seventy-seven, ended a useful and well spent life when Death's summons called Monday morning at her home, 352 North Twenty-sixth street. She was the mother of Robert L. and Misses Elizabeth and Blanche Price and was for many years a devout and highly respected member of St. Cecilia's church, where the funeral services were held Wednesday morning.

The Sacred Heart parish mourns the death of Mrs. Mary Burgoyne, beloved wife of Martin Burgoyne, 1700 Magazine street, one of its most devout and generous hearted members. She was a real friend of the poor and no deserving appeal to her went unheeded. Besides her husband she leaves several children, all grown. The funeral was held Saturday morning, Rev. Father Walsh officiating at the requiem high mass.

FOURTH DEGREE BANQUET.

The Fourth Degree Assembly of the Knights of Columbus of New Albany had a happy and patriotic observance of Lincoln's birthday, holding their annual banquet Wednesday night at the Tavern. Joseph Bruns presided as toastmaster, and stirring addresses were delivered by G. E. Weinmann, Secretary of the New Albany Chamber of Commerce, and M. J. Farrell. The celebration was a real success, credit for which is due Will Birt, Edward Tighe and Eugene Zoeller.

SEEKING HEALTH.

Rev. Father George Connor, pastor of St. William's church, has arrived in California and is now at San Juan Capistrano, where Rev. Father St. John O'Sullivan, formerly of this diocese, is now stationed. Father Connor is in poor health and was ordered to spend the winter on the coast. At present Passionist fathers are attending to the spiritual needs of the parish.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

Northside Council, Cincinnati, has 128 members in the service. A banner class will be received into the order tomorrow at Little Rock.

The second degree was exemplified last week for sixty candidates at Syracuse.

The million-members campaign is making much progress in the cities of the North and West.

There will be an exemplification of the fourth degree on February 23 at Rochester, N. Y.

Omaha Council has set the initiation fee at $15 until a membership of 1,500 has been acquired.

The membership campaign has started at Connersville, Ind., the first degree having been given ten candidates.

Owing to the progress made the initiation set for February 23 at Portland, Ore., has been advanced to tomorrow.

Indianapolis Council had one of its greatest initiations last Sunday, conferring the degrees on a class of seventy-five.

From among the best ballplayers in the different councils a ball club is to be organized to represent the Cincinnati K. of C.

Port Wayne Council is planning for the initiation of seventy-five candidates March 2, as a result of the membership campaign.

Newport, Bishop Carroll and Kehoe Councils have arranged for a joint initiation, to take place in Covington on Sunday, February 23.

The last initiation at Omaha was a very important event, seventy new members receiving the degrees and the membership going over 1,000.

At the last meeting of Omaha Council 110 new applications were read. The initiation takes place tomorrow and will be followed by another two weeks later.

Pine Bluff Council heads the million membership campaign in Arkansas. Last Sunday a splendid class received the degrees. Rev. Father Higgins is giving the council his earnest support.

DELIGHTS AUDIENCE.

Dr. Thomas O'Hagan, the widely known writer and orator, lectured here Monday night at the Presentation Academy auditorium under the auspices of St. Helena's Co-operative Club, where he was greeted by a large and appreciative audience. His subject was "A Trip Through Spain," and was interesting, enjoyable and informing throughout.

WERE ALL GOOD.

On Sunday the two performances given by the St. Xavier players of Canon Sheehan's "My New Curate" was rendered to crowded audiences which filled the college auditorium, enjoying the drama from the rise of the curtain to the close of the last act, when by a miracle the blind girl, Alice Moylan, recovers her sight. Each one of the participants did his or her part in an exceptional way and there is no need of specifying any one in particular. But one must not let the good acting of Thomas D. Glines in the night performance go by without special mention. His naturalness and high class acting of the part of Jim Deady was far the best of the evening's entertainment.

Miss Olga Klein made her debut as Beatta Campion, the leading lady, and showed exceptional ability in this difficult and emotional part. Miss Josephine Cavanaugh, as Nance, also made her initial appearance and scored a hit, as after a few minutes on the stage she had the sympathy of the audience and kept it all through the four acts.

There will be another performance of the play on Sunday, February 18, and the last performance will be Saturday, February 22, Washington's birthday, in the afternoon at 2:30. The Saturday matinee, February 22, will be the last performance of "My New Curate" in Louisville, so that those who wish to see something unusual in a theatrical way should avail themselves of this last opportunity.

At the Sunday matinee the Presentation Academy orchestra pleased a large audience, and besides the drama the musical end was a grand success. At all of the other performances the St. Xavier's College orchestra and the Presentation Academy orchestra are united, and excellent music was given.

SOLDIER PROTEST.

The A. E. F. has no collective concern with prohibition any more than it has with freight rebates, the market price of sheet steel or the ad valorem duty on help imports into Patagonia. But when a new dispatch states that one explanation of the prohibition advocates' zeal since the A. E. F. came to France is their desire to put over prohibition before the A. E. F. gets home again, then the A. E. F. has the right to make a collective protest. For, if the prohibitionists can get away with it, why can not everybody else? The A. E. F. represents a very fat share of the entire electorate of the United States—the electorate that picks Governors, Senators and Presidential electors; that instructs its representatives how it wants them to vote on minimum wage and child labor laws; that helps decide whether the home town shall be wet, dry, bone dry, absolutely dry, or "stranger, you simply can't get a drop in the whole place." And, in the name of common honesty, is it quite fair for prohibitionists or anybody else to attempt to secure a popular vote on a decision of nation-wide import when the folks who have been fighting for that same nation are calmly, blandly, deliberately left out? As was earlier remarked, the A. E. F. has no collective concern with prohibition. But it at least ought to have the chance to express its will—it ought at least to be present, if only as a guard of honor, when the water wagon begins its solemn triumphal procession along the Lincoln Highway.—Stars and Stripes.
